EARLY MUSIC YOUTH ORCHESTRA (EMYO)

Established in July 2017 with an emphasis on high-level performance comparable to that of the best youth orchestras in the world, the Early Music Youth Orchestra (EMYO) is EMAE's flagship ensemble. Led by the EMAE Director and String Tutors, EMYO draws its members from those string players (violins, violas, cellos and double basses) who have graduated from or are enrolled on the EMAE Academy's Advanced and Intermediate programmes.

DR ALBERTO SANNA

Dr Alberto Sanna is a violinist, musicologist and educator from Sardinia, Italy, who specialises in the music of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

He is the director of the Liverpool-based charity Early Music as Education (EMAE) and of its flagship ensemble, the Early Music Youth Orchestra (EMYO). He is a well-published author and an independent recording artist; he regularly directs from the violin large-scale instrumental and vocal works and performs chamber music nationally and internationally.
